The golden sandy beaches & boardwalk at the Burnie Beach provide a beautiful place for your memorable photos to be taken and are located a short walk from the Civic Centre.

The reception entrance features views of Bass Strait and an antique grand piano stands stately, waiting to add to the sense of occasion.

A number of reception rooms await your inspection. Braddon Hall is suitable for a small intimate wedding whilst the Town Hall caters to a grand gathering of up to 400.

Let the feasting begin

Catering quality is one of the most memorable aspects of any wedding and echoes of praise continue to reach us from past weddings. Our catering staff take advantage of our bountiful supply of quality Tasmanian produce to supply your guests with an exciting and wholesome taste of Tasmania.

Catering prices will vary according to the choice. We have included a sample selection for you however, many combinations are possible and you should consult our wedding co-ordinator who will put together a package to suit your taste and budget. All prices quoted are current and we suggest you may wish to add a percentage to allow for cost of living increases. Our current CPI is approximately 3% pa.

Guests with special dietary needs are catered to individually.

A three-course dinner menu consisting of two choices of entrée, main course, sweets plus tea or coffee would be in the vicinity of $45.00 - $55.00 per person depending on the style of service and selections chosen.
