Kennel Licence Information

INTRODUCTION

Dog Control Act 2000 Part 3 - Division 7

Section 50. Keeping several dogs

A person, without a licence, must not keep or allow to be kept on any premises-

- (a) more than 2 dogs over the age of 6 months; or
- (b) more than 4 working dogs over the age of 6 months.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 5 penalty units ($905)

Section 51. Application for licences

- (1) A person may apply to the general manager for a licence.
- (2) An application for a licence is to be -
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) accompanied by the appropriate fee.
- (3) If there is a right to object under section 52 or if a general manager so requires, an applicant, by public notice, must notify -
 - (a) the intention to apply for a licence; and
 - (b) the address and details of the premises and the number and breed of dogs to which the application relates."

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 2 penalty units ($362)

Section 55. Granting application

- (1) A general manager may grant an application for a licence if satisfied that -
 - (a) adequate provisions for the health, welfare and adequate control of all dogs on the premises are provided or are likely to be provided; and
 - (b) nuisance to any other persons is unlikely to occur; and
 - (c) requirements under Jaws relating to public health and environmental protection are likely to be satisfied."

APPLICATION

Notice of Intention to apply for a Kennel Licence:

This information is required to appear in the local daily newspaper. You should note that once the 'Notice' has appeared in the newspaper, neighbours within 200 metres of your property have a period of 14 days in which they may object to Council granting the Kennel Licence.

Application for a Kennel Licence

After the expiration of the 14 day objection period, you are then required to submit to Council the 'Application for a Kennel Licence'.

Not less than 28 days after the Notice has been published, Council Officers must then consider your application, along with any objections received, and may also visit your property to assess suitability.

LICENCE

When a Kennel Licence is granted by Council, the Licence will state the maximum number of dogs that may be kept on the premises; the breed or kind of dog to which it applies; any conditions as the General Manager may determine; and the expiry date of the licence.

FEES

Initial Newspaper Advertising and annual Registration fees for individual dogs are additional to the annual Kennel licence fee.
